Wandering Colored Children Returned to Their Home.

Windsor, April 30 .- The four daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Dilford colored, of the Hayden's Station district, left home to go after arbutus at 10 a. m. Monday, and when they had not returned home at night a searching party set out. Nothing having been earned of their whereabouts last night, the selectmen were notified and preparations were made for a systematic search to-day, but at 10 o'clock word came that the children had been found near Suffield and had been sent home on the last train. The girls are 16, 12, 10 and 7 years old. They were seen once of the Suffield road Monday afterroon, but dodged back into the woods.
